PROFESSIONAL & STAFF SERVICES

Basic professional fees: (requires Basic Facility Charge) Professional consultation with licensed Funeral Director including, but not limited to, expert advice on options to meet your needs, including essential services relating to disposition, drafting notices, planning scheduling of services, advising regarding possible government benefits. This charge applies whenever we provide services to you. Co-ordination of all activities, rites and ceremonies, before, during and after they have been provided, including services and supplies provided by us, as well as those provided by third party suppliers, such as flowers and death notices.	$725
Documentation – permits, forms, etc.: Completion and filing of all documents necessary to carry out the services and supplies requested, including, but not limited to, death registration, burial permit, coroner’s certificate for cremation, documentation necessary to ship the body out of the country. As part of this service, we will provide you with 12 proof of death certificates; such certificates are usually accepted for most estate settlement purposes, but sometimes a provincial Death Certificate will be necessary and is available from the Office of the Registrar General. Also includes obituary posted on Van Heck Funeral Home website for online condolences.	$ 250
Basic preparation of remains: (requires facilities for preparation/embalming/shelter) The preparation of the body for placement into the casket, including bathing, dressing and the setting of facial features for identification or viewing without embalming.	$150
Embalming Remains: (requires basic preparation of remains) Embalming is the process of replacing blood and bodily fluids with chemical preservatives. It is a process of sanitation, restoration and temporary preservation. Embalming is not required legally, but may be recommended to preserve the body between the time of death and the visitation or disposition of the deceased. Our licensed funeral directors will make a recommendation based on the condition of the body and the expected service needs.	$ 475
Staff services for visitation: Staff to coordinate and oversee the visitation (informal gathering) at our premises for a period up to 5 hours. If the visitation takes place at an offsite location, this fee covers equipment charge and additional staff services. Includes but is not limited to greeting and directing visitors, supervision of parking and processing donations.	$ 525
Staff services for ceremony: Staff to coordinate and oversee the Funeral service or memorial service for up to 3 hours.	$ 440
Family Care Service: This service includes cancelling government issued ID, passports, etc. and the application of government death benefits. We will also assist with contacting life insurance companies, employers and any other pensions or benefits on your behalf.	$ 250

DISBURSEMENTS

Disbursements are items arranged for and possibly paid for on your behalf by the funeral home to third party providers. You are expected to pay for these items at the time the contract is entered into. Such items include but are not limited to:

Coroner's fee – this is a fee charged by the coroner for issuing a certificate that allows cremation to take place. The fee is set by the Chief Coroner for Ontario. (currently $75)

Clergy honorarium – this is an amount paid to the clergy for their services. In some cases the amount is set by the clergy, in others it is an amount to be determined by you. ($200-$300 is standard)

Newspaper – these are charges for death notices placed in newspapers or other media outlets. (Daily paper average is $250.00 and Weekly paper average is $100.00)

Municipal death registration fee – this is a fee charged by the local municipality to register the death. The fee is set by the municipality and may vary. (As of July 1, 2021 $15)

Floral tributes – this is the fee charged by the florist. At the time of arrangements, we will discuss the design and cost of each arrangement with you and place the order for you.

A large, light blue circular logo with a thin border. Inside the circle, the letters 'V' and 'H' are written in a large, grey, serif font. To the left of the circle, there are several stylized leaves in shades of green and blue, extending upwards and to the right.
